

Season Pass Insurance

Just $25 per pass

Season pass insurance covers you if an unforeseen injury, illness, pregnancy or relocation prevents you from using your pass for the 2020 -2021 season, including off-season injuries.

COVERAGE: With appropriate documentation*, you are eligible for 100% refund for the purchase price of your season pass. Documentation must be presented prior to the last day in February. No refunds will be given after March 1, 2021.

Insurance allows you to extend the refund to immediate family members who have been affected, i.e. children, as long as insurance has been purchased on their season passes also.

Insurance must be purchased at the time of pass purchase.
Insurance protection covers injuries, illnesses, or relocation only.

Insurance not for you?

Compensation is still available without insurance but is prorated based on the schedule outlined below. The refund will be available for the injured person only. It cannot be extended to additional family members, including children.
